

Challenge in the everyday classroom

A one-day workshop for secondary teachers, leaders and coordinators, packed with practical ideas and strategies for embedding challenge across the curriculum.

26 April 2018, Bristol

Programme

09:00	Coffee and registration
09:30	Outcomes for the day Principles, context, research and challenges Definition: who are our more able learners? Identification: how do we identify them? And the underachievers? The learning culture and more able learners – raising aspirations
11:00	Coffee
11:20	Key messages for teaching more able learners Asking questions to inform policy and planning Key points and actions from the morning session The NACE Challenge Award: supporting school improvement
12:45	Lunch
13:30	Challenging our able learners – what constitutes challenge? Practical ideas to use in the classroom Resources, information, advice and guidance Final thoughts and key messages
15:00	Close

Programme subject to change.