

Member meetup: “Making cultural capital in the classroom relevant for more able learners”

A free meetup for NACE secondary school members, exploring approaches to developing cultural capital, hosted by the English-Speaking Union.

6 March 2018, Dartmouth House, 37 Charles Street, London W1J 5ED

This free meetup offers fresh inspiration, expert input and tried-and-tested approaches to promote the development of cultural capital in secondary schools. Hosted by international charity the English-Speaking Union (ESU), the session will open with a presentation and discussion led by experienced education consultant and NACE trustee Sue Mordecai on cultural capital and educational advantage – offering guidance to create a school culture in which more able learners from all backgrounds can flourish.

Promising an abundance of practical ideas and resources to take back to your school, this event is for all secondary school staff involved in supporting more able learners.

Programme

- 10:30 Registration and refreshments
- 10:50 Welcome
Sue Riley, NACE CEO
- 11:00 Making cultural capital in the classroom relevant for more able learners
Presentation and discussion, led by NACE trustee Sue Mordecai
- 11:50 Speed sharing: “one that worked”
Exchange of resources and approaches to develop cultural capital
- 12:30 ESU for schools
Introduction to the ESU’s secondary school education programmes and competitions – Duncan Partridge, Director of Education, ESU
- 12:50 Membership updates
Vicky Eaton, NACE Membership Coordinator
- 13:00 Networking lunch and informal discussion

Book your place: www.nace.co.uk/events

Programme subject to change. If unable to attend, please contact us to transfer your place to a colleague. A non-attendance fee of £50 will be charged for any booked places not taken up on the day.