

New to Able, Gifted & Talented?

'Gifted & Talented', 'More Able', 'Highly Academic', 'High Attainers' ... Terminology is not important, it's what happens in the classroom that really counts.

Are you a new primary school A,G&T Coordinator?
Have you just been given the role and don't know where to start?
If so, this is the course for you.

"Great day, very informative, lots of excellent ideas & resources to take back to school" St Peter's C of E

Programme to include:

- Your role in leading A, G & T development
- Defining and identifying more able and talented learners
- Creating an ethos where challenge is relished and celebrated
- Practical strategies and ideas for developing classroom provision
- Interpreting and using data to evaluate and develop provision
- A Challenge Awarded school sharing their practice

Hosted at NACE
Challenge Awarded schools

Date & Venue

4th November, 2016

Parkview Primary School,
Derbyshire, DE21 2RQ

21st November, 2016

Snowsfields Primary School,
London, SE1 3TD

Presenters

Pauline Hinchliffe,
NACE Challenge Award Assessor;

Marie Jarvis,
Headteacher,
Parkview Primary School;

Laura Neuveglise,
Deputy Headteacher,
Snowsfields Primary School

Who should attend?

- Primary School
A,G&T Coordinators

BOOK NOW

To avoid disappointment, go to www.nace.co.uk/event-booking or email: naceevents@nace.co.uk

NACE Member £175_{+vat}

Non-member £275_{+vat}