

'Ready, Willing & Able to Move Forward'

Empowering more able learners, turning ability into achievement

A two day, cross-phase conference focusing on practice and provision for the More Able and Talented.

NACE is delighted to invite Barry Hymer, Professor in Educational Psychology and Simon Weston OBE to address these conferences

Wednesday 11th March and Thursday 12th March at St David's Hotel & Spa, Cardiff

BOOK NOW

to avoid disappointment
www.nace.co.uk
naceevents@nace.co.uk

Who should attend?

MAT Co-ordinators, Teachers,
Headteachers, Leading Teachers,
School Improvement Officers

Simon Weston OBE

Simon's message is one of single minded determination, to not only accept what is, but to turn that to your advantage. Simon's own career clearly demonstrates how a positive mental attitude can achieve great business goals.

Barry Hymer PhD

Professor of psychology in education, Barry is an experienced secondary and primary school teacher, author of seven books and numerous papers and articles in the field of learning and teaching. Barry has presented to over 500 national and international conferences, and worked in a training and consultancy capacity with many thousands of teachers, students, parents, governors, teaching

Ready Willing & Able Wednesday 11th March 2015

Keynote: Barry Hymer PhD

Day one will focus on all round MAT provision. This day is for schools looking for inspiration and guidance on how to achieve good MAT Provision.

Workshops will include:

- MAT from scratch
- Challenge—what does it look like?
- Using technology to engage MAT learners
- School case studies
- From identification to practice
- NACE Cymru Challenge Award

Able to Move Forward Thursday 12th March 2015

Keynote: Simon Weston OBE

Day two will focus on how to embrace challenge and move forward, developing resilience, tackling underachievement and recognising talent.

Workshops will include:

- Raising aspirations
- Harnessing talent
- NACE Cymru Challenge Award
- School case studies
- Is talent enough?

NACE Member £250 per day : Non Member £350 per day
Loyalty discount applies

The programme for these conferences will meet key elements of your School Effectiveness Grant & Pupil Deprivation Grant.

Loyalty discount: if your school attended the 2013 & 2014 NACE Cymru conferences, your place will be charged at last year's rate of £225 (member) £325 (non member)