

Challenge in the everyday classroom

A one-day workshop for primary teachers, leaders and coordinators, packed with practical ideas and strategies for embedding challenge across the curriculum.

3 October 2018, London

22 November 2018, Cardiff

23 May 2019, Manchester

Programme

09:00	Coffee and registration
09:30	Outcomes for the day
	Principles, context, research and challenges
	Definition: who are our more able learners?
	Identification: how do we identify them? And the underachievers?
	The learning culture and more able learners – raising aspirations
11:00	Coffee
11:20	Key messages for teaching more able learners
	Asking questions to inform policy and planning
	Key points and actions from the morning session
	The NACE Challenge Award: supporting school improvement
12:45	Lunch
13:30	Challenging our able learners – what constitutes challenge?
	Practical ideas to use in the classroom
	Resources, information, advice and guidance
	Final thoughts and key messages
15:00	Close

Programme subject to change.

Book your place: www.nace.co.uk/events