English for the More Able

A one day conference for primary schools addressing more able provision in English in the new national curriculum

Date 20th October 2016
Venue Grand Connaught Rooms
London WC2B 5DA

Who should attend: KS2 teachers, G&T Co-ordinators, English Co-ordinators, Headteachers and SLT

Workshops
- How to plan and teach for greater breadth and depth at KS2 in reading in the mastery context
- How pupils can develop the craft of their own writing through independent learning
- How we can deepen grammatical understanding through a range of practical games and activities
- Practical strategies for engaging children with grammar and punctuation through high quality texts
- Using questioning and higher order thinking skills to dig deeper into literary themes
- The mastery of key language skills to develop breadth and depth across all subjects
- Planning and resources for the more able in the new curriculum

Keynote speaker
Anne Fine
HELPING THEM FLY

Anne Fine will discuss how the thoughtful provision of reading matter enriches everyone in the class, but is a particularly vital resource for the more able child.

Anne Fine is the second Children’s Laureate and a distinguished prize-winning writer for children of all ages, with over forty books to her credit.

NACE members £249.00 +vat
Non members £315.00 +vat

Who should attend: KS2 teachers, G&T Co-ordinators, English Co-ordinators, Headteachers and SLT

Workshops
- How to plan and teach for greater breadth and depth at KS2 in reading in the mastery context
- How pupils can develop the craft of their own writing through independent learning
- How we can deepen grammatical understanding through a range of practical games and activities
- Practical strategies for engaging children with grammar and punctuation through high quality texts
- Using questioning and higher order thinking skills to dig deeper into literary themes
- The mastery of key language skills to develop breadth and depth across all subjects
- Planning and resources for the more able in the new curriculum

Keynote speaker
Anne Fine
HELPING THEM FLY

Anne Fine will discuss how the thoughtful provision of reading matter enriches everyone in the class, but is a particularly vital resource for the more able child.

Anne Fine is the second Children’s Laureate and a distinguished prize-winning writer for children of all ages, with over forty books to her credit.

NACE members £249.00 +vat
Non members £315.00 +vat

Book now to avoid disappointment
www.nace.co.uk or email naceevents@nace.co.uk
NACE members £249.00 +vat
Non members £315.00 +vat

Each delegate will receive a FREE Rising Stars English for the More Able resource worth £75

NACE National Office, The Core Business Centre, Milton Hill, Abingdon, Oxon, OX13 6AB
Tel: 01235 828280, Fax: 01235 828281, Twitter: @naceuk Registered Charity No: 1125907 Company No: 06604325